

Sinclair Broadcast Group's recent actions are horrifying and illustrate the dangers of media consolidation.

My understanding is that Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. And that you are charged with ensuring that they comply. It is simply unexcusable for the FCC to stand by as Sinclair attempts to influence the presidential election.

In addition, Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard.

Thank you.
Lorri Freitas